AUSMUSIC T-SHIRT DAY

SUPPORTACT
The heart & hand of Australian music

Ausmusic T-Shirt Day is an annual day of recognition and support for Australian musicians, held every November (Ausmusic Month) since 2013. It was founded by national youth radio station Triple J. Participants are encouraged to wear a t-shirt representing their favourite local artist, and make a donation to music industry charity Support Act.

This year it will be recognised on Thursday 26th November, so we are encouraging SENCON delegates to come along in your favourite Australian musician merch.
We will have a collection point for any donations you wish to contribute towards Support Act.

All funds raised from the campaign go towards helping them continue their crucial work supporting musicians, managers, crew and music workers through crisis relief support, mental health and wellbeing programs, the Support Act Wellbeing Helpline, and dedicated First Nations support.

Make a donation at the Registration Desk during SENCON, or get in early and make a donation here - https://ausmusictshirtday.org.au/student-experience-network
